

Dillard University International Center for Economic Freedom

Located at Dillard University in New Orleans, DUICEF is organized into two flexible blocks containing classrooms, a computer lab, large assembly rooms and offices. The blocks are linked by an open glazed lobby, corridor and lounge which provide places for students to meet informally and offer magnificent views of the campus.

